C.I.F. BASKETBALL

Our fantastic varsity basketball team sky-rocketed themselves into this years C.I.F. playoffs. With a determined team effort, the varsity players pulled together and fought out what had to have been this years most thrillful athletic event for the Cavaliers. John Ohodnicki's perfected outside shooting basketed the Cavs into the second round of the C.I.F. games with a winning score of 63-62 over the Covina Colts. The second game of the playoffs proved to be the real test for the conquering Cavs as they led Katella by 9 points at the end of the first half. Persistently, the Cavs battled out the second half but Katella proved a tougher match even for the mighty Santiago Cavaliers. The game ended with a heart-breaking defeat for the Cavs, with a final score of 56-40. Though the game was lost, the team won the affection and admiration of their fellow Cavaliers for their courage and determination throughout the entire season.

TRACK AND FIELD

This year our fleeting track team streaked" to the finish lines over countess competitors. Varsity runners Jesse Moye, David Bell, Mike Mitchell and others ran over the tough competition set by the other schools. The Cavs proved strong in their field events also as they hurdled, shot putted, vaulted, long jumped, discoted, high jumped and downright competed to the best of their abilities.

The 1974 Gymnastics team, under the direction of Miss Sandy Hampton, achieved outstanding status in competition and holds great promise for future years. This year we regretfully loose such dedicated gymnasts as Sue Marriott, Luanne Delnaro and Cheryl Cochran. The biggest highlight to the team was freshman Julie Barzaire, who with her lightfooted and sparkling talent amazed her fellow team members. Julie will most definitely be one of the teams biggest assets in future years.

ASB

At the top of Santago's political ladder we find ASB President, Bruce Carr. Standing firmly on the ground, Natalie Fleet, ASB Vice-President receives an "emergency call" from advisor Mrs. Morgan; at which point Renee Durigon, ASB "money manager", in her excitement leaps to the front of the battalion. Meanwhile, Secretary Ann Dilzer follows along taking notes. At the bottom of the ladder stands Bonnie Davis, Historian, recording the crews escapades. And there you have it, Santiago's 1973 ASB Cabinet, bursting through with full force, dedication and excitement.

TOP ROW: Sitting pretty as a picture are Commissioners at Large: Karen Richards, Cheryl Sain, Collen Sektan, and Paul Scribner. Reflecting the attitudes of the cabinet, "see no evil," "hear no evil," "speak no evil," are: Ruth Truskoll, Renee Durigon, and Vicki Crook. Commissioner of Assemblies, Lisa Dopke, getting ready to unfold another fun-filled, toe-tapping, block-busting, rip-roaring assembly.
MIDDLE ROW: Step by step Athletic Commissioner, Louis Cameron, exercises his coordination ability. Our "swinging" Pep Commissioners are: Renata Boumeester, and Sheri Miller. Monkeying around, as usual, is Publicity Commissioner Jack Collings, and his assistants Ruth Truskol, Sue Bell, and Janet Archer.

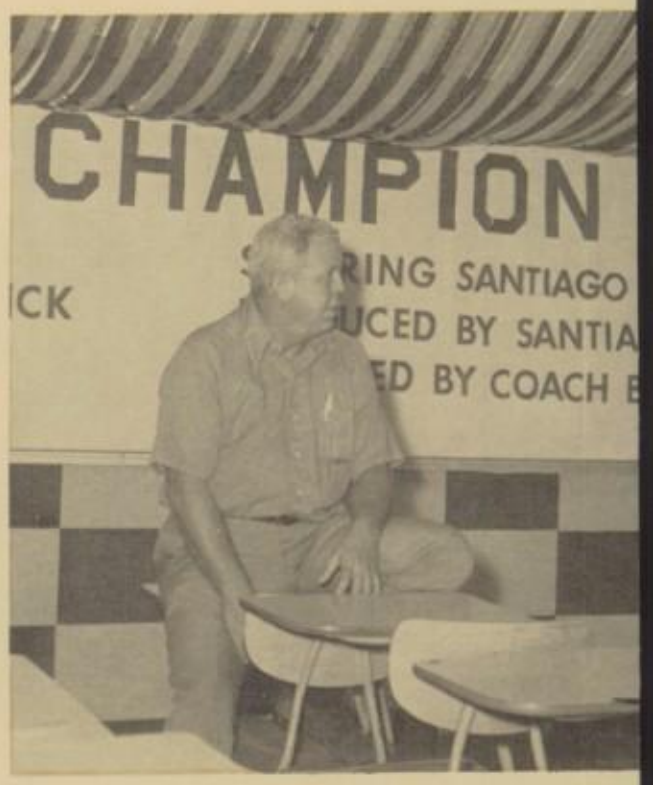
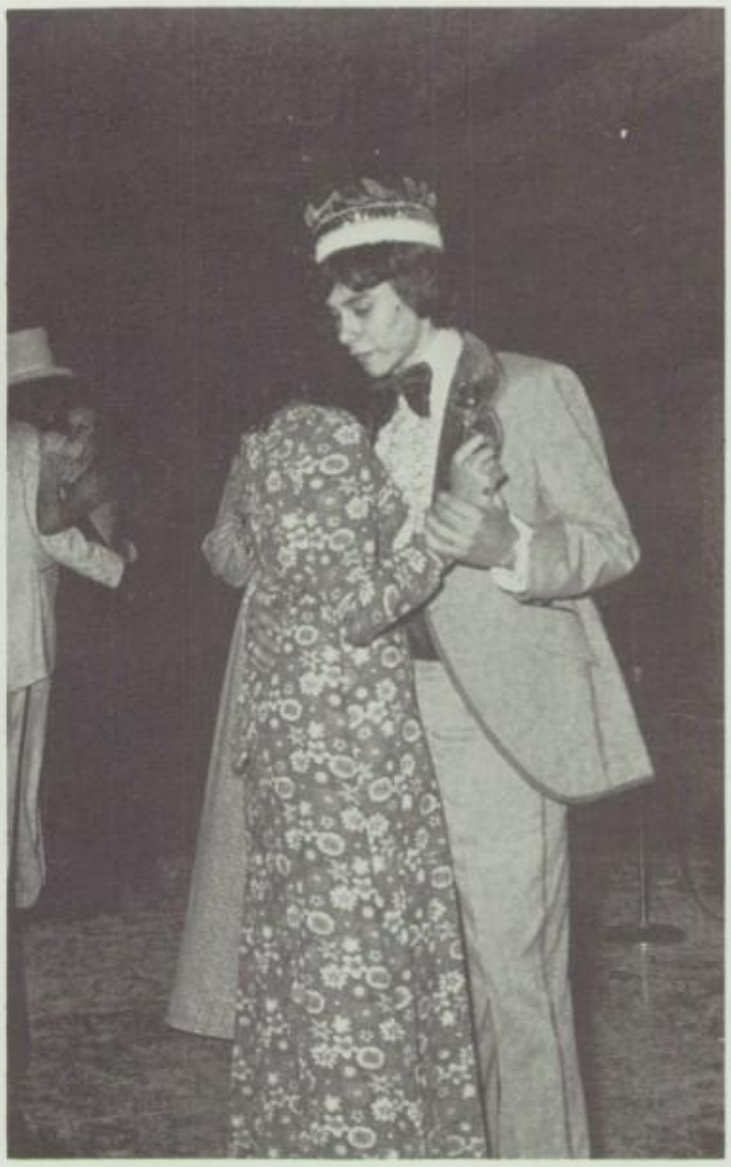
SANTIAGO HIGH

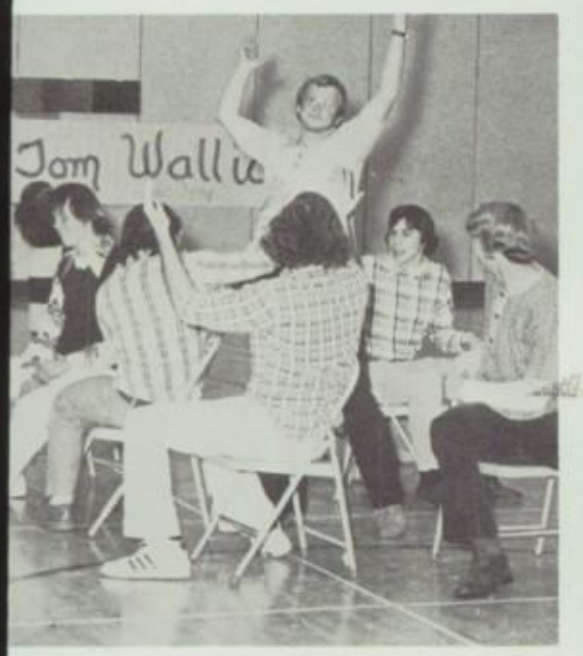


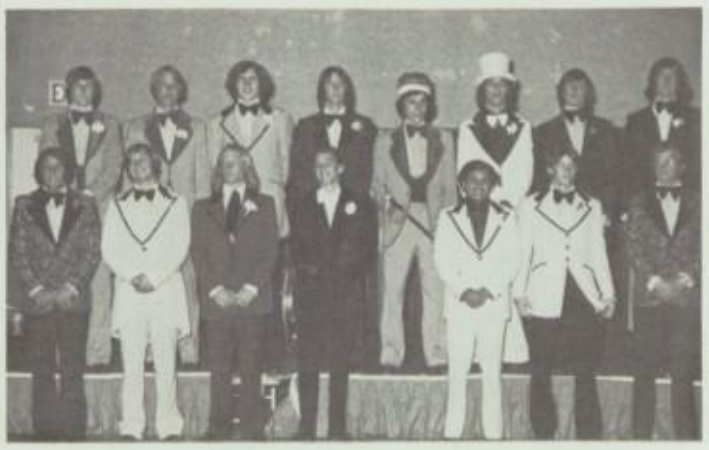
The Homecoming theme this year was "Hollywood Comes to Santiago." Daily competitions between classes determined the Spirit Queen. The Homecoming Queen was voted on by the entire student body. This year's activities included Dress-up Day, "Love Bug" Push, Miss Hollywood and Her Agents, Tarzan Rescue, and the obstacle race, "Around the Quad in 80 Seconds." Extra points were earned by each class through additional presentations of spirit. The highlights of Spirit Week were the crowning of Homecoming Queen, Belinda Garrison, and the Spirit Queen, Ester Orozco. Topping off the weeks events was the added thrill of a 14-10 victory over a tough Pacifica team.

At the Homecoming Assembly awards for homeroom decorations and Dress-up Day were presented. Winners of homeroom decorations were: "Sweepstakes", Mr. Scherer (room 315), first runner up, Mr. Steele (room 217) and second runner up, Mrs. Guiterrez Lee (room 216). Costume winners were: First place, Dan Davey and Linda Barber as "Micky and Minnie", Second place, Daphne Waldron as "Mary Poppins" and Third place, Barbara Kuhl as "The Flying Nun."

CO-ED KING 1974







This year's Co-ed was held at the elegant Royal Inn, with the theme of "Somewhere My Love." The runners-up and their sponsers were: 3 John Walton and Renata Bouwmeester, 2 Paul Scribner and Cheryl Sain, 1 Steve Sanders and Terri Rusk. Jack Collings was crowned 1973-74 Co-ed King. His Sponser was Patti Minassian.

PEP ASSEMBLIES

Santiago spirit was "SKY HIGH" this year. A.S.B. President, Bruce Carr and Head Yell Leader, Becky Haugland led our four classes in spirit competition and helped promote pride in Santiago and its football team.

SUPER SOPHS

FRESH SPIRIT

Donkey Basketball.

The faculty of Santiago came out victorious in a vengeful attempt to regain their last title after last year's surprising defeat in our annual Donkey Basketball game. The students played hard and strong, as their fellow Cavaliers barely managed to keep themselves in the stands. The exuberant fans cheered their team on throughout the excitement of the game, but alas, the event ended in a close defeat with a faculty victory over the Cavs. The final score was 36-34.

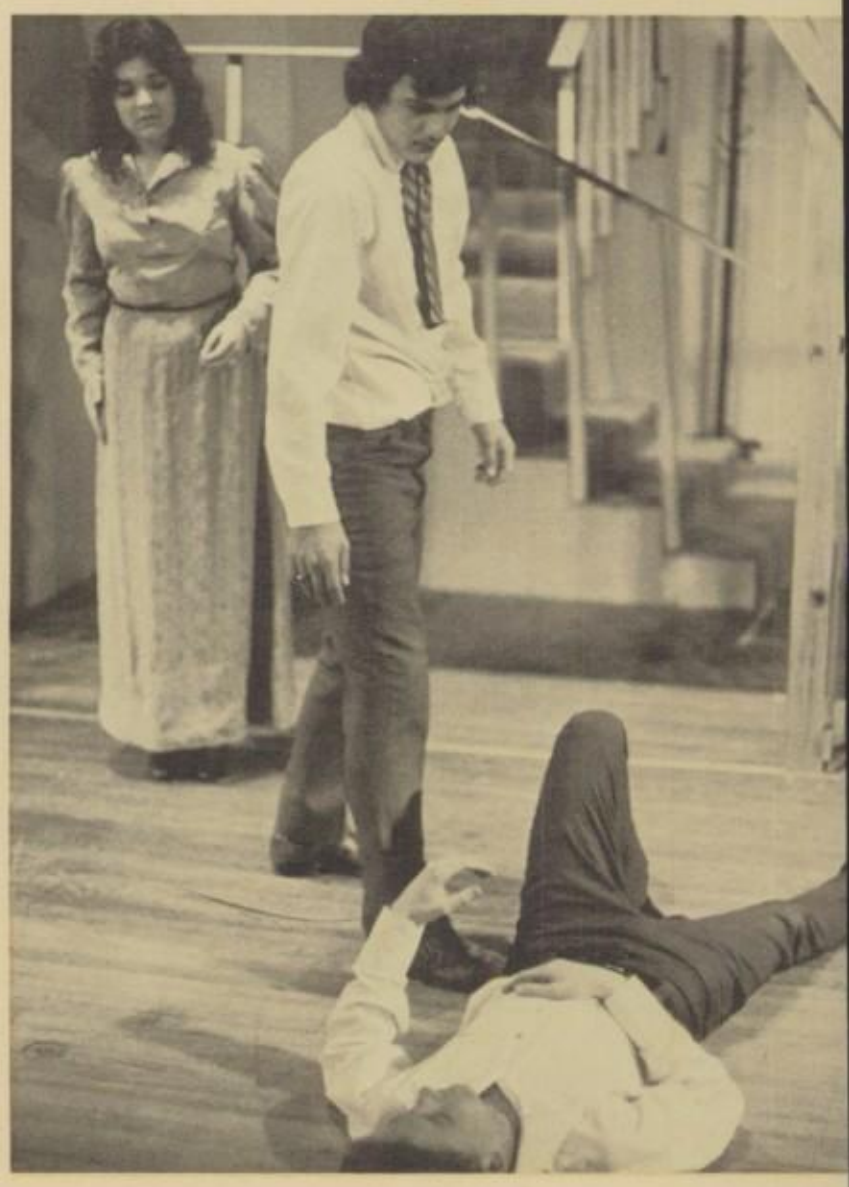
CHRISTMAS ASSEMBLY

Santiago presented "Christmas on the Moon" for the children of Clinton Elementary School this year. The wish of the "Lady on the Moon" finally came true. The rocket did land on the moon with Santa Claus and the children of the moon celebrated their first Christmas.

The "Lady on the Moon" was played by Sheri Miller and Santa by Robin Daubert. The family members were played by John Maurer, Cindy Cline, Belinda Shagena and Julie Bazaife. Jill Stevens came shining forth in her role as the star. Playing the parts of the astronauts were Randy Peterson, Barbara Giordano and John Boudeleved. The reindeer were played by volunteer members of the student body. Drill Team, Flag and Banner acted the part of the soldiers. The play was directed by assemblies commissioner, Lisa Dopke.

FALL DRAMA PRODUCTION

The "Miracle Worker" was the first full dramatic stage production ever put on by our performing arts department. The show enjoyed the most success any drama production has ever recieved at Santiago.



The cast members were:
"Helen"-Kathy Henderson, "Ann Sullivan"-Cindy Cline, "Mr. Keller" -Richard Waldron, "Mrs. Keller"-Nancy Henderson, "James"-Robin Belza, "Aunt Ev"-Therese Heffern, "Viney"-Debbie Krizo, "Martha"-Debra Banegra, "Percy"-Jim White, "Anagnos"-Bruce Carr.

SPRING MUSICAL

"South Pacific". South Pacific was one of the biggest ventures this school has ever taken. After two months of solid rehearsals, South Pacific turned out to be a smashing success and established a tradition of performing major musicals here at Santiago. Leading roles were "Nellie"-Sherie Miller, "Emile"-Mark Wheeler, "Luther"-Robin Daubert, "Lt. Cable"-Bob Jones, "Bloody Mary"-Nancy Henderson.

"The Sound of Music". "The Sound of Music" proved to be even a bigger success than "South Pacific" of last year. With professional sets, costumes, and a superb cast, Santiago once again came thru with an outstanding performance.

The leading roles in "The Sound of Music" went to: Row 1: Cindy Cline-"Frau Schmidt", Dan Davey- "Franz" (the butler). Row 2: John Maurer- "Baron Elberfeld", Doug Beshears- "Herr Beller", John Pennington- "Admiral von Schreiber", Susan Bell- "Mother Abbess", Debbie Phillips- "Sister Margareta", Jill Stevens- "Sister Berthe", Rene Durigon- "Sister Sophia", Row 3: Paul McInnis- "Friedrich", Paula Carr- "Louisa", Robin Daubert- "Max Detweiler", Sherrie Miller- "Maria", Mark McGunegill- "Captain Von Trapp", Daphne Waldron- "understudy for Maria", Sharon Hall- "Elsa", Eileen Kerns- "Liesl", and Richard Waldron as "Rolf".

This year's junior class, headed by their "all-female" officers, and advisors Mr. Scherer and Miss Aspen, has been a hard competitor in all the various school activities and functions. President, Kathy Mitchell, relates the enthusiasm of her spirited class as she lists their accomplishments: 1) first runner up at Homecoming, 2) winners many times in class competition at assemblies, 3) their successful mum sale at Homecoming, and 4) the tremendous responsibility of preparation for an enjoyable junior senior prom.

CLASS OF '76

Despite being handicapped by a non-existent class president, Vice President Mimi Kvale, her officers, and class advisors, Mr. Zinn and Mr. Chioti, led the sophomore class forward during their second year at Santiago. IN MEMORY OF: DON WASH

Don Wash was a teacher with the district at all levels, as well serving in administrative positions in elementary, intermediate, and high school assignments. He held a master's degree from Cal State University Long Beach. He was a football player at the University of California where he earned his BA degree. He served as captain in the U. S. Marines. He had 16 years of experience in California public education.

We shall never forget such a fine man.

IN MEMORY OF GUS HOWARD

During the summer Santiago lost its plant foreman, Gus Howard, who passed away after having worked at Santiago for Nine years. George Gill, the Principal of Santiago, had known Gus for over 24 years. In that time he and Gus had become good friends and their friendship led to occasional fishing trips and times of relaxation together.

Gus started his career 26 years ago at Garden Grove High where he worked for eight years as gardener. Upon leaving Garden Grove, he transferred to Rancho High as their plant foreman. Nine years later Mr. Howard came to Santiago. Gus was so devoted to the school that he would come on weekends and even holidays to work around our campus to assure that it was prepared for the faculty and students so as to make it more enjoyable for them.

We surely feel the loss of a good friend on our campus.

In Appreciation

". . . pictures . . . layouts . . . deadlines . . . 4 A.M. . . . Another "Urgent Letter"? . . . Do ho ho! . . . proofs . . . Would you like to write copy? . . . Where's Chris? . . . Mr. Thomas will be here in five minutes! . . . RUSH ORDER! . . ."

It hardly seems possible, but another year has come and gone and with it our contribution is finished. We made it, yet it would not of been possible without the help of so many. We would like to express our sincere gratitude to all the members of our staff for their combined effort in keeping us on our toes! The group has spent many nerve racking hours, cevoted to creating a unique and exciting yearbook. We can only hope that you receive as much enjoyment out of reading this book as we had in preparing it for you.

A special thanks: to Patti Todd and Janis Takahasi for their valuable artistic contributions, to Mrs. Davis, for supervising and handling our financial affairs, to Mr. John Thomas, our American Yearbook Company representative, for his boundless advice, and to Miss Dorte Christjansen, our advisor, for her unending patience and guidance through enumerable crisis. We would like to thank them, together with the many teachers who graciously excused staff members from their classes to work on the book during those times when deadlines were especially pressing.

To all those who have unselfishly offered a hand in the preparation of the "El Caballero" our sincere and appreciative "thank you".
